

Feel the Pulse of the Financial World

Post-trade made easy

Despite being the leading post-trade company, Euroclear's brand is not well known, unlike retail banks. So how do we differentiate and attract talented individuals, in such a competitive market?

Our best bet was to engage our people in a creative campaign. By reflecting the engagement, pride and creativity of our employees in our campaign, the pipeline of candidates will never dry!

Strong reputation in the social medias, colorful & fast-paced the environment, multinational teams ... if you work for Euroclear, you will genuinely feel the pulse of the financial world.
